

The Dining Room

In the corner of the Dining Room at Waddesdon there is a painting of Cupid showing a mirror to his mother Venus.

Venus was born from the sea foam, and came to shore on a seashell. Cupid is Venus' son with the Roman god of war Mars, and is usually shown with a bow and arrow; whoever he shoots with his arrow is overcome with love.

