CONGRATULATIONS

The White Drawing Room

Waddesdon Manor Weddings Exclusively Yours

For the select few, a wedding within Waddesdon Manor, the Rothschild family's fairytale French Renaissance-style chateau in Buckinghamshire, is now a possibility.

Just an hour and a half's drive from central London, the Manor is one of Europe's last remaining properties in le style Rothschild. Built in the late 19th century as a showcase for Baron de Ferdinand's unique collections of decorative fine arts and legendary hospitality, the Manor is today owned by the National Trust but still managed by the Rothschild family.

Now, for the first time, a limited number of weddings can be held in its exquisite interior: an exclusive opportunity to experience the same privileged lifestyle as Baron Ferdinand's house party guests, with superlative food, excellent wines and unsurpassed service.

There's a choice of locations - all equally enchanting, for ceremonies, receptions and wedding banquets, depending on numbers.

The Aviary

The Parterre

St. Michael and All Angels Church

Exchange your vows amidst the truly heart-stopping splendour of the White Drawing Room, its huge picture windows overlooking the spectacular Victorian garden bedding (Parterre) below and rolling landscape beyond. Alternatively, the fabulously ornate Aviary just a stone's throw from the Manor makes a unique ceremony venue, or the local church, St. Michael and All Angels, is only a few minutes' drive away in Waddesdon village.

DRINKS

After the ceremony, serve drinks and canapés in the light and airy White Drawing Room and adjoining opulent Red Ante Room, or move out into the gardens, onto the Parterre or into a marquee, depending on numbers. Drinks and canapés can also be served in the Cellars, modelled on the private caves of distinguished Bordelais châteaux and which house over 15,000 bottles of Rothschild wines.

Choose from an extensive wine list sourced by Waddesdon's own wine company whose unique links with Rothschild vineyards around the world, including Lafite and Mouton, assure best prices and availability.

DINE & DANCE

For small groups, the coolly elegant Blue Dining Room with its iconic Ingo Maurer contemporary chandelier, is simply stunning; the White Drawing Room offers a gorgeous backdrop for slightly larger gatherings, or for large numbers dine in style in a specially erected marquee designed to your exacting requirements.

Our Executive Chef uses only the best British and seasonal ingredients to produce imaginative, delicious menus, tailored to your exact requirements. For larger marquee events, selected outside catering companies are invited to the house.

Dance the night away in a bespoke marquee erected in the beautiful grounds at the rear of the Manor but within full view of its splendour.

ACCOMMODATION

Stay in our own Grade II listed Five Arrows Hotel, situated near the gates of the Manor, or take advantage of our close working relationship with many superior hotels in the local area, including Le Manoir aux Quat' Saisons and Hartwell House, and enjoy preferential rates.
