PRIVATE CELEBRATIONS

THE FIVE ARROWS

Waddesdon

Baron Ferdinand de Rothschild built Waddesdon between 1874 and 1885, as a weekend retreat to entertain friends and family.

The Rothschild family remain devoted to Ferdinand's vision, the tradition of legendary hospitality in a fabulous setting still thrives – a tradition we invite you, your family and friends to share.

The Five Arrows is a Grade II listed building at the gates of Waddesdon Manor, originally built as inn for its workers.

Today the Five Arrows is a boutique hotel with sixteen bedrooms and a charming old coach house ideal for anniversaries, birthdays and christenings.
